Well, it's been building up inside of me
For, oh, I don't know how long.
I don't know why, but I keep a-thinking
Something bound to go wrong

When she looks in my eyes
It makes me realize.

Don't worry, baby.
Don't worry, baby.
Don't worry, baby.
Don't worry, baby.

I guess I should have kept my mouth shut when I start
To brag about my car
But I can't back that up now because
I pushed the other guy's too far.

For what she does to me
When she makes loves to me.

Don't worry, baby.
Don't worry, baby. (Everything will be all right)
Don't worry, baby.
Don't worry, baby. (Don't worry, baby.)

She makes me come alive
And makes me want to drive.

Don't worry, baby.
Don't worry, baby. (Everything will be all right)
Don't worry, baby.
Don't worry, baby. (Don't worry, baby.)
