Yea you're burnin'
Oh you're burnin'
My ears with your travellin' tales

But my in-laws
Oh baby my in-laws
Well they're trying to tie a young man down

Oh I never should have settled down
Hangin' around in a one horse town
When everyone started sleepin' around

Oh I never should have settled down
Hangin' around in a one horse town
When everyone started sleepin' around

But this feelin'
Oh that I'm feelin'
Are you prayin' that I tear a heart

So this evenin'
Oh baby I'm leavin'
On a one way ticket tonight

Well I never should have settled down
Hangin' around in a one horse town
When everyone started sleepin' around

Oh I never should have settled down
Hanging around in a one horse town
When everyone started sleepin' around

Oh oh oh, well my friends said "Don't get settled down"
Hanging around in a one horse town
When everyone started sleeping around

Guess I never should have settled down
You see hangin' around in a one horse town
Does nothin' for your state of mind
