Trust me you said and I said I would if I
Could only trust myself
But my heart's in a storm and my head's no
Help at all
It should be so simple it should be so clear
The answers should just appear
But I'm sitting here waiting without a sign
Waiting for you to change my mind

I never told you anything that I didn't
Really feel
But what I feel can change so much
That I don't think I can trust myself
No I don't think I can trust myself

One night I knew what I should have done when
I had always been confused
When the moon was in my eyes and I couldn't
See at all
Well it should've been easy it should've been nice
The answers should've echoed twice
But I'm sitting here waiting for a clue
About where to go or what to do

I never told you anything that I didn't
Really feel
But what I feel can change so much
That I don't think I can trust myself
No I don't think I can trust myself
No no I don't think I can trust myself

Every moment comes and goes
Taking with it what I know
And there has to be a day
When I cannot walk away
When I still am standing here
Having cocktails with my fear
It should be so simple it should be so clear
The questions should all disappear
But I'm sitting here waiting for a word
Maybe I've already heard

I never told you anything that I didn't
Really feel
But what I feel can change so much
What I feel can change so much
I never told you anything that I didn't
Really feel
But what I feel can change so much
That I don't think I can trust myself
No I don't think I can trust myself
I don't think I can trust myself
Oh no I don't think I can trust myself
