I just got you back and I've lost you
We said goodbye a long time ago
I didn't want to

I just want you to know
That it's nothing personal
When she tells you
No, no, no, no, no

It's the season of the witch tonight
Is it worth it to be rich tonight?

She's seeping in, I can't help it
I can't take my mind off of this
I don't know what's selfish

Your certain friends call
And others won't listen
These are not my burns that glisten

I just want you to know
That it's nothing personal
When she tells you
No no no no no

It's the season of the witch tonight
Is it worth it to be rich tonight?
It's the season of the witch tonight
Is it worth it to be rich tonight?

It's the season of the witch tonight
It's the season of the witch tonight
Is it worth it to be rich tonight?
