Sweetest word I ever knew
Shooting into the avenues of our hearts, our hearts

The sweetest word I ever knew
Shooting into sky of blue and our hearts, our hearts

Why do they come here?
Why are they wise?
Why do they come here?
What a surprise to our hearts, our hearts

The sweetest word I ever knew
Shooting into a sky of blue and our hearts, our hearts

The sweetest word I ever knew
Shooting through the avenues of our hearts, our hearts
Our hearts, our hearts, our hearts
