Listen world, I'm sick of not knowing the future.
I wanna know if there is gonna be a world left, In which my children can play.

We can do this, let's go. - Let's go!
Corporate world. Corporate world.
Let's do it. - Let's go!

World number three makin' mega money.
Sellin' dope to babies, now it ain't so funny.
James used to say we got to buy some land.
We got to get together, we got to have a plan.

(chorus)
Corporate world for all my sis' and my bro'.
A new soul nation, it is possible.
Corporate world for all my sis' and my bro'.
Let's build a foundation, let's do it. - Let's go!

Callin' on my brother, the one that's doin' good.
Let's put our bread together and buy a neighborhood.
We'll build a better school that teaches us how to make it.
And when the enemy offers dope, we don't take it.

(repeat chorus)

Corporate world.
Let's do it. - Let's go!

We're gettin' the grooves in order, 'cause everybody wants to dance.
If you wanna hear our music, then give an equal chance.
Everything has the radiant from now on, we got to get paid.
Don't you ever try to cross me, nobody knows what's in my briefcase.

Sing the chorus y'all.
Corporate world for all my sis' and my bro'.
A new soul nation, it is possible. - Think it ain't?

Oh yeah, Corporate world.
Let's do it - Yes!

Maybe, just maybe I'm sick of not knowin' the future.
If there's gonna be a world for my children to play?
If you wanna build a highway in my neighborhood.
Then guess what? - What?
I got to have some say. Think I don't?

Corporate world - A new soul nation.
Corporate world - It is possible, let's go.

OK boys, we got 17 days left.
12 of which are just played in stadiums outdoors.
How would you like to ride? Limousine or Cadillac?
Morris, the King of Arabia couldn't make it to our show
Saturday.
But his daughter still wants to come.
Shall we set it up?

For you man, messin' right, we hittin'.
And while I gotcha, plans for the new club at the ...
With operations by my summertime thang.

I hope this all lives up to your satisfaction.
'cause it certainly does to mine.
