Your world, your world

Your life is fun and games
But all you do is complain
About the way you live?
You like to take, what do you give?

If you don't work
How will you earn?
Don't like to go to school?
You'll never learn

One thing I know for sure is, baby
It's your world you're livin' in
And what you choose to make it, is what it is
It's your world you're livin' in
If you don't make it better, nobody else will

Tell me, what's on your mind?
We pay the price, who does the crime?
Growing epidemics, kids born chemically dependent
Through a lack of education, we have lost a generation

Livin' a soap opera as the world turns
Feel the crack on your back.
Just think, don't be a fool or you'll get burned
The skillet, the fire, which one is worse?

It's your world you're livin' in
And what you choose to make it, is what it is
It's your world you're livin' in
If you don't make it better, nobody else will

Your world
Oh, baby, it's your world, oh yeah
If you don't make it better, nobody's gonna make it better

When leadership is lacking, guess who's to blame?
(You)
If you don't vote, opportunity is elusive
On trial is destiny, only you can change it

The verdict is still out

(Your world)

It's your world, it's your world, oh, oh yeah

(Your world)

It's your world

If you wanna make it better, baby you can make it better

(Your world)

Look out, horns, wait a minute

Who's world is it?

You're shapin' the world that you're livin' in

You like to take, what do do give?

Who pays the price in the end?

Your life's fun and games, but you still complain

About the way you live your life

Who's to blame for your demise?

It's your world, it's your world

Whatcha gonna do with it?

Gonna make it better?

Monte
