What do you do when theres nowhere to run, nowhere
to hide,
And all your feelings are shown on the outside?
What do you do when you know you arent wrong,
You have to hold on, can you be strong?
What do you do when everythings messed up,
No point in showin up, you just want to throw up?
What do you do when you know you are right,
Grasping so tight, no light just the cold night?

{Chorus}: ([]= 1st time only)

[You just have to] fight

Fight for your life

[You just have to] try

Try to stay alive

{Repeat}

End

What do you do when the walls are closing in,
Stuck in the spin, breaking the skin?
What do you do when you cant stop to talk,
Cant even walk, stuck between blocks?
What do you do when you cant stop running,
Into the darkness, heartbeats humming?
What do you do when you feel so alive,
Then everything changes, out of the hive?

{Chorus}

{Part Two}:

What am I supposed to do?

I just dont get it,

I cant get through to you.

Why cant you just see that I love you,

And here with me is where i need you?

*End*Now you just have to

{Chorus}

{ Part Two }
(Fades Away)
