"Dead Boy"

Hey I walked in on my friends
So it seems
You, young and old, come and go in a dream
Well I wake up and you're a daze spinning in my head
You piss away your days and now you're dead boy
You're a dead boy, dead boy
You're a dead boy, dead boy
Yeah, did you hear it over here across the way?
You, your face on every page that I read
Well I wake up and you'll be gone
And I'll know where you'll be
You piss away your days but hey, you're not me
You're a dead boy, dead boy
You're a dead boy
Dead boy
Dead boy
Dead boy
You're a dead boy, dead boy
You're a dead boy, dead boy
