This is the way we come undone
This is the way we kill us all
Waiting for our good day to come
Laughing it up and singing along
This is the way we find ourselves
Identify with the perfect sound
Rattling bones and jingling pockets
Laugh it up, man, its coming around
Cause this is your day
Everything yours for the taking
How does it feel?
Is it the way you imagined?
This is your time
This is what you make it
This is your day
Everything yours for the taking
This is the way we make things happen
This is the way we all fall down
Rattling bones in a jaded incursion
The want and the need to blow this town
But this is your day
Everything yours for the taking
How does it feel?
Is it the way you imagined?
This is your time
This is what you make it
This is your day, yeah
Everything yours for the taking
This is the way we come undone
This is the way we kill us all
Waiting for our good day to come
Laughing it up and then we're gone
But this is your day
Everything yours for the taking
Oh, how does it feel?
Is it the way you imagined?
This is your time
This is what you make it
This is your day
Everything yours for the taking
This is your day
This is your day

This is your day
This is your day
This is your day
This is your day
This is your day
This is your day
