"Ghost Of Sorrow"

Have you come to make amends or do you bring storm and the rain to wake me again still I stare into the light and dream that you are alive and part of the sun do they care if we live or we die as they drift here in the dark waiting for our tears

The Ghost of Sorrow is here - is here they say the devils have won its a simply beautiful lie so we go on - with hope and little promises and dream that you are alive waiting for us here

The Ghost of Sorrow is here the wait for tomorrow is near to live this lonely road is so hard to bare and hard to follow hard to heal so hard to swallow this love this only love will right the ghost that's passing through me here

It's passing through me here the Ghost of Sorrow and tears
