Now there you go
Standing on the outside
Still trying to find me
But here I am I'm waiting in the middle
Seems like you've been blinded
I cant get you're attention

And that's when I often wonder
Why you and I go over under
But never in a straight line
And never at the same time
When all we wanna do is just get it right
To make it through
Over me under you

We play this game
In a house of mirrors
I cant seem to reach you
But there you are if only for a minute
But somehow I lose you
Do you even see me

And that's when I often wonder
Why you and i go over under
But never in a straight line
And never at the same time
When all we wanna do is just get it right
To make it through
Over me under you

You're upside down I'm right side up
What does it mean
Why cant we find eachother
Somewhere in between

And that's when I often wonder
Why you and I go over under
But never in a straight line
And never at the same time
When all we wanna do is just get it right
To make it through

Over me under you

And that's when I often wonder
Why you and I go over under
But never in a straight line
And never at the same time
When all we wanna do is just get it right
To make it through
Over me under you

Over me
Under you
