che
its your boy J Reyez
and Chris Jackson

[chrous]
wanna hang on but it feels like your slipping away how could a love soo strong go so wrong reaching out to you but there's nothing left to be said cause our love is gone now im all alone who would have thought the real you could have been this way(for real) now i think to myself was it a big mistake? (big mistake) preminessing other days that i spent with you (yea) no truth now i cant even be friends with you moving*down girl thinking that i did you wrong pause and looked down girl i need you strong you got a new love now but there is no trust you dont know about love you just feel the lust when you love somebody there's a million chances to fix the problem but im barely standing s'all but i admit that you were my weakneess when i was with you boo i felt completed and nothing that can fix all the broken pieces this song is not me its my emotions speaking damn all the times that we spent on the block you'd be rich if u got a small penny from my thoughts about you

[chrous]
i kinda wonder if u were pretending all the things that you said if you really meant it (i still wonder) i guess now we're just a memory and i cant hold on i gotta let it be (uh) was it faith or a small delay was it a game you played do it all the way if you stressed out need a place to stay just remember that im only one call away girl i just hope for you the best the well just know wat u doing and respect yourself the real you always held it down girl and ill admit i kinda miss your smile girl some things only last a while but you always got me just go and ask around you were my bestfriend and you are my angel cause i changed up but now we're strangers

[chorus]

go on girl cause now your free but when im in need are you down for me you were the only one i had to listen a gift from god that im not forgettin but the things u did when u hit me down are u proud or really are u in denial it can work but it hurts all the days we spent if i could go back in time i would live it again girl press rewind and i would fix the problem avoid everything that i did to cause them had a bad feeling so i got a little worried and i gotta ask will you still love me in the morning girl you had traits of a wifey type but a reall wife knows the wrong from right importantly a real portion sees you weakness aside it was loyalty

[chorus]
