your testimony across white screens
where ideals
are better shaped
these screens
where ideals
are better shaped to hide fake image in souls
these screens
where ideals
are better across white screens attributes that watch these demonstrations of refractions from
the light of day
face down
in surrenders
that stay in neutral or
that stay
in negative
then until spines straight until two expressions are one until every second is taken as intense as every second is
