then embrace holds you allows to show no response and what embrace will hold you lead us to collapse these walls dance only at times with this evil dance with get lost with this and touch the change within you'll get lost in this so dance with actions set to steal this day and in seeds that future they've replayed this voice chosen to hear chosen to speak movement is clear when sleep is wiped from eyes so dance then you'll get lost in this and dance with actions set as choice
will be the place of stance that has found its way and brings your
its brings this
that has found its way and brings
it brings
will be the place of stance that has found its way
