Too many lies, and too much trouble that you bring see me tired of the empty chat and everything you better do your thing but please girl, dont mix me in tell that me already had nuff trouble with your lying longtime me waan fi hear the truth but nutn coming caus' when you open up your mouth nutn bout troubling so let me take a look inna your eyes before leaving
-let me just tell you straight up

One more time
let me face reality tell that me just need to take a look in your eyes
One more time
I wanna make it clear beca' me dont wanna get deeper into dem lies
One more time
let me face reality tell that me just need to take a look
in your eyes
One more time
I wanna make it clear beca' me dont wanna get deeper

Me remember you from backa' day oneya name empress of the town, tell me dun play, yo attitude fling up everyday but me say you allways a' depon the runway too many lies you fling around soon you gaan stray how fi deal certain gyal outta Norway you nah tell the truth bout a damn thing anyway so me nah waste time beca' this game me dun play

One more time...

me wondering why you're like that, why you keep on fooling everybody around so and why dont you just stop misbehaving caus' you know you act like clown yo couple year a' pass like that and nutn hav' change since me saw you around no time fi move on, me nah turn back, just tell I the truth and dont get yourself down

One more time...

like in a book me telling that the truth is written

in your eyes

One more time

I wanna make it clear beca' me dont wanna get deeper

One more time
