

Ann Beretta

"FM"

Visit "FM" on MotoLyrics.com

We' ll always have the radio blasting out the songs that we sang long ago, There was a time when I tried to believe that there was something left inside for me. Whoa oh, And I was told, You'll always have the radio, Sometimes I wish it wasn't so, We'll always have the radio, Small town and no place to go, When I lose myself in the radio song, We'll always have the radio, Small town and no place to go, When I lose myself in the radio song. We'll always have the stars above falling from the night in skies when I'm alone, There was a time when I tried to believe there was something left inside of me. Whoa oh, And I was told, You'll always have the radio, Sometimes I wish it wasn't so, We'll always have the radio, Small town and no place to go, When I lose myself in the radio song, We'll always have the radio, Small town and no place to go, When I lose myself in the radio song. We' ll always have the radio blasting out the songs that we sang long ago, There was a time when I tried to believe that there was something left inside for me. Whoa oh, And I was told you'll, Always have the radio, Sometimes I wish it wasn't so, We'll always have the radio, Small town and no place to go, When I lose myself in the radio song, We'll always have the radio, Small town and no place to go, When I lose myself in the radio song. We'll always have the radio, Small town and no place to go, When I lose myself in the radio song, We'll always have the radio, Small town and no place to go, When I lose myself in the radio song, And I lose myself in the radio, And I lose myself in the radio, And I lose myself in the radio, Song, Radio...

Visit Ann Beretta page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.