But I've been tracing

Trying to remember

Some of the things we used to care about

When're you gonna save the corner/see every corner

Of a place I haven't seen

When're you gonna have me over like

chorus:

The way things used to be (x3)

I don't want it all back

I don't mind where I'm at

I've been trying to stand tall

But I've been placing so much of my mind's eye

Just trying to see over these walls

I put in front of me

When're you gonna answer a phone call

I say I'm on your street

I think we used to laugh into the morning

chorus

Most of the time when it fades away

I don't really mind reshaping clay (?)

I wasn't always such a sucker

It's the sentimental me

Maybe I'm blowing my cover

But what I want to see

Is the way things used to be

Between you and me

The way things used to be
