1st Verse

I've never been known as a Tom Jones
And I'm sure not Fred Astaire
Then he asked her to dance
She jumped at the chance
When I said, 'Go ahead, no, I don't care'
What harm could it do
A two-step or two
'Cause I wasn't worried 'bout her
But when two left feet got the best of me
It left me in a world of hurt

Chorus

And she danced
All night long
And she danced
To every single song
She didn't walk away
She didn't stop to say good-bye
She just danced
She danced right out of my life

2nd Verse

I tried not to look
But every step they took
Took her farther and farther away
Thought about cuttin' in
But it was too late by then
She was in his arms to stay
I played it so cool
'Cause I felt like a fool
As he twirled her out the door
From the very first song
She was so long gone
Her feet never touched the floor

(Repeat Chorus)

Tag Chorus

She didn't walk away
She didn't stop to say good-bye
She just danced
She danced right out of my life
But she danced (she danced)
Yeah hell, she danced (she danced)
That girl danced
She danced right out of my life
