Mother knows and how to keep a secret from me and when will I know because there's no one left to tell but me
and she's been holding on for too long and where will she go and with her daughter's note she watches a mirrored screen and she's getting cold and her clothes are made with money
and she's been holding on for too long
but don't worry cause I am leaving but don't worry and your thoughts aren't clear and I'm thinking about you and your brother won't be found and you've stopped, and you've stopped caring and mother knows and how to keep a secret from me

tell but me
and you've stopped, and you've stopped, and you've stopped
and I'm thinking about you

and I'm thinking about you

and I'm thinking about you

and I'm thinking about you
