Hush now, baby, soon I'll see you in my dreams Asking nothing, nothing's ever what it seems Baby wants some milk and honey, ask me and you shall receive
Never seen no devil wear his heart upon his sleeve

Damn the corner where the streets have turned insane
If you do unto others, you will die by your own hands Baby pull me even closer, tangled like the web she weaves
Shaking off the demon, now their coming after me

Don't mistake me, ain't no ordinary man
Gonna save me from that shocking in your hand Covering the walls and shadows, faster that the sound of speed
Never seen no devil, now that's all that I can see

I see you too, I see you too
You can't deny, you can't deny
