Come to me, baby,
Follow my lead,
I have a confession to make,
It's always been this way.

Oh I'm playing you for a fool,
You fell for every, broken rule.
I'm doing what I owe to you,
It's been a long time coming
And I'm coming for you.

While I, silently I scream,
Inside I barely breathe,
Silently I scream.

Reflection overzone,
It'll never be the same
Restless and jaded, but still
Still I, I've changed.

Do you feel, naive,
Did you make me believe,
Were you, deceived,
Oh you fell right on your knees.

Oh I'm playing you for a fool,
You fell for every broken rule,
I'm doing what I owe to you,
It's been a long time coming
And I'm coming for you.

While I, silently I scream,
Inside I, barely breathe,
Silently I scream.

Reflection overzone,
It'll never be the same,
Restless and jaded, but still
Still I, I've changed

You've got it going on,

No way I'll let you stay.
You've got it goin on,
I don't want to see your face.

It's taken all this time
Before, I realized that I
Should go, Because
I told you so I could let it go
Without a fight,
It might not be right.

Reflection overzone,
It'll never be the same,
Restless and jaded, but still
Still I, I've changed

You've got it going on,
No way I'll let you stay.
You've got it goin,
I don't want to see your face.
