

The Union

"The Perfect Crime"

Visit "The Perfect Crime" on MotoLyrics.com

(Verse)

You don't know me, but I met you once before,
You weren't there, but you were very good, I'm sure.
As I recall you were wearing even less
Than you're wearing now, I must confess.
You're wondering if I'm insane
But you're still listening, so I'm in the game.

(Chorus)

Cos bad intentions are what I have in mind,
You don't know this, it would be the perfect crime.
No come back as far as I can see,
Say nothing and the secret's safe with me.

(Verse)

You've been with him for about a century
He doesn't notice you, that's why you notice me.
Is not a question of leading you astray,
More a matter of meeting you halfway.
Why fight it, where's the catch?
There's no strings attached.

(Bridge)

Skipping away with you, it feels so right,
You love it, it will be the perfect crime.
No victim, cause no one's getting hurt,
There'll be no wiser if you never breathe a word,
Not a word, breathe a single word.

(Chorus)

Bad intentions is what I have in mind,
You don't know this, it would be the perfect crime.
No come back as far as I can see,
Say nothing and the secret's safe with me.
You don't love him, it would be the perfect crime.
No victim, cause no one's getting hurt,
There'll be no wiser if you never breathe a word,
Not a word, don't you breathe a word.

