(R. Brewster-Neeson-Miller)

Riding on a lucky wheel of seventeen I think I'm gonna live to be 103 feel like wild card -- what you say a slice of the night's gonna come my way Walking through the city I'm a king of surprise my midnight champagne's ready on ice it's Saturday night, I got nerves of steel
I can roll all night on a roulette wheel
Let the night roll on
I'm looking for hell
Let the night roll on I'm making a kill
it's Saturday night
I waited so long
let the night roll on Playing along with the rest of the world saxophone women...satisfied girls I'm a wound-up string on a violin the future's gonna take me where I've never been I could be naked Sunday with nothing to wear I wouldn't know it, I wouldn't care
it's Saturday night, I got nerves of steel
I can roll all night on a roulette wheel
Let the night roll on
I'm looking for hell
Let the night roll on I'm making a kill
it's Saturday night
I waited so long
