(Eccles-Spencer-Brewster)

Lyin' awake in bed, battle bullets in my head ragged edge of sleep, come to me

Lyin' awake in bed, cool silence break the edge
I just can't take this heat, come to me

I looked into deadlights

I've murdered tonight

danced with he torture chambermaid
who set my bridges alight

Lyin' awake in bed, floating in between Lyin' awake in bed, in and out again

Lyin' awake in bed, tryin' to shake the things I said

I just can't take this heat, come to me

I looked into deadlights

I've murdered tonight

who set my bridges alight

Lyin' awake in bed
