(Break Away) IT consumes your life
Everything you do revolves around it
Is this a privilege or a disaster?
(Break Away)

What once was true
Now seems that it's fucking foul
Are we closing in on the final hour?
A once red hot flame
Seems to smolder away
So do we carry on
Or watch it slip away
So Break Away- Or see it through
Snap the chains
Is this what we should do
So break away 0 or see it through
Snap the chains
Don't know what's wrong
Or what's right

Day in day out
The sacrifice is immeasurable
The lengths to which
You've gone to make this work
Will never be understood
It's so funny how you can feel on top
Of the world one minute
And want this dead and gone the next
Now let fate take it's course

You would give your life just to have it all
Can you see
The writing on the wall
Is this what you deserve
For all you have given
Is the end near
Or has paranoia set in

So break away - or see it through
Snap the chains
Is what you should do

So break away - or see it through
Snap the chains
Don't know what's wrong
Or what's right
My vision is so hazy tonight
My minds been diluted with hate
Help me escape

Hey hey
Do you think that this is the end
It seems like that this is the end

So break away - or see it through
Snap the chains
Is that what we should do
Snap the chains
My minds been diluted with hate
Please someone help me escape
