I left my blood in the alley, my guts on the floor
Laid up with regrets and some hundred dollar whore
Hey whiskey, hey what you doin' to me?
I got a busted head, I've got broken teeth
Goin' toe to toe in the middle of the street
Hey whiskey, hey what you doin' to me?

I keep on drinking
I keep on sinking
I'm down as far as I've ever been
When you get down that low you don't get up again
Hey whiskey, hey what you doin' to me?

I loved her skin to skin, I loved her heart to heart
But Jim Beam and some bad bitch tore it all apart
Hey whiskey, hey what you doin' to me?
My liver's hard as an old oak tree
You cut down ol' Hank and now you're gunning for me
Hey whiskey, let this poor boy be

I keep on drinking
I keep on sinking
Yeah I'm down as far as I've ever been
When you get down that low you don't get up again
Hey whiskey, hey what you doin' to me?

Yeah I keep on drinking
Yeah I keep on sinking
I'm down as far as I've ever been
When you get down that low you don't get up again
Whiskey, hey what you doin' to me?

I cried whiskey, hey what you doin' to me?
Dirty down whiskey, yeah what you doin' to me?
