(English Translation)

Laugh at something serious
Cry from something funny
In half light
Green has now changed silver
The moonlight
Shines down on rolling hills
Yeah
Hello Edward Elgar
I feel your spirit here
I'm here too
Hills, dark yet light
Transfigured into something new
Almost reached the top
Radiant mist on the fields, rising
Look at Duffy looking
A sea of clouds has almost reached our feet
Whatever's happening in ming?
Oh Yeah
Miracles that I'm going to find
I believe
Time stands still while the mist recedes - glow white
And still the moonlight casts it's spell, transfigured night
When we experience eternity
Change can bring reality
