"Forest Fire"

No junk food, just earthly goods
I ate weird berries in the woods
Now I'm seeing colors, I'm getting higher
I think I'll start a forest fire
There's a forest fire climbin' the hill
Burnin' wealthy California homes
Better run run run run run
From the fire
But some of us stay and watch
And we think of your insurance cost
And we laugh laugh laugh laugh laugh
At your lives
Windows covered with bars
Security guards
Is that a house or a fortress
Against the world
Windows covered with bars
Security guards
Is that a house or a prison
How you gonna get out?
Electric bull and your tennis courts

Pink sports cars and your boat

Getting fried fried fried fried fried fried

By the fire

Windows covered by bars

Floodlights for the yard

It's a pleasure to watch you

Watch it all melt

But hey!

What about the cocaine

Stockpiled in the basement

Be a hero and save it

You know you're gonna need it

Where's your brand new pretty wife

She might still be inside

Either save her or your cocaine from the fire

But the gates and doors are locked

Cause the burglar alarms went off

Ever wonder why we laugh laugh

At your lives

Windows covered with bars

Fences spiked with barbed wire

Never looked so helpless

Engulfed in flames

Cameras watchin' the walls

Don't forget the dogs

Now you're trapped in your prison

How you gonna get out

See the gerbil

Run run run run run run run run

Run run run run run run run run

Run run run run run run run run

From the fire
