You're a well paid scientist
You only talk in facts
You know you're always right
'Cause you know how to prove it
Step by step
A PhD to show you're smart
With textbook formulas
But you're used up
Just like a factory hand
(chorus)
Something is wrong here
You won't find it on a shelf
You're well paid
You're well trained
You're tied to a rack
Company cocktails - gotta go
Say the right thing
Don't fidget, jockey for position
Be polite
In the pyramid you hate
Sip that scotch

Get that raise

This ain't no party at all

(chorus)

Cringe and tense up

Grind your teeth

And wipe your sweaty palms

Close your windows driving past

The low life company bar

They're making fun of you

Ahhh

Even you

You've gotta punch the clock

Too scared to punch your boss

When will you crack

When will you crack

When will you crack

When will you open your eyes

Pull up to your sterile home

You're drained

Bite the heads off of your kids

Chew them well, they taste like you

Just slam the door

Assigned here cause your company owns the land

All your colleagues live here too

Private guards in golf carts

Keep you safe at home?

(chorus)

When will you crack

When will you crack

When will you crack

When will you crack

The dark shattered underbelly

Of the American dream

Avoid it like the plague

It stares you from the bathroom mirror

Drown
