I live in the land of the freeways - Home of the smog and traffic - The sun and the air - The mountains and sea - Streams and palm trees - The valleys... - The canyons... - The mountains... - The beaches... - Hollywood, downtown, the valley - Are all places you should see - The city at night, the city so bright - a short time away a campfire sight - The missions... - The mansions... - The farmlands... - Punk rock bands... - People come from all over - to work and live in the sun - It's always so nice - my own paradise - The desert , the snow - So many places to go - The people... - The places... - The weather... - The faces... - That's for me
