As for me, I shall go to my place
And yet, I cannot see anything at all
To the flowing of tears Surely
No more shall I be afraid
The answer that man gave me
Really does not suit my true self
Perhaps I shall discover something
Perhaps there is something that I cannot discover
The piece of me
That has hidden in my heart
Only towards where the winds show me
I alone shall go
If somewhere I will find
My unknown true self
Having run a little too fast
I feel I missed out on something
Even such a mistake
Is surely an answer
Once more only by my pace
I shall become myself, unlike anyone else

Perhaps I shall meet someone
Perhaps I shall hurt someone
Only where the road leads Shall I try walking
I will go, not waiting for the blade
To catch it with both hands
Perhaps I shall discover something
Perhaps there is something that I cannot
The piece of me
Only towards where the winds show me
I alone shall go
If somewhere I will find
My unknown true self
