We stayed up all night, we stayed up all night, we stayed up all night
And saw the sun come up, and saw the sun come up
And saw the sun come up, scream it from the roof

When I was a child, wild vampire smile, grabbed the city by the throat
And drowned it in barbed wire
When I was a boy, made love to an android
Spent an entire indian summer staring at the void
But now I am a man with a hand made out of knives
And watercolor panorama's smeared across the sky
And someday I will die, vagabond ballroom for life!
Build a harp out of my bones and play that shit all night

We stayed up all night, we stayed up all night, we
stayed up all night
And saw the sun come up, and saw the sun come up
And saw the sun come up, scream it from the roof

You know I see parrots shrieking all night long Sing my song with futuristic, sadistic, torture sticks

Use my intuition to find a better life
Vagabond Ballroom represent it till I die
Use my intuition to find a better life
Vagabond Ballroom represent it till I die
Use my intuition to find a better life
Vagabond Ballroom represent it till I die
Use my intuition to find a better life
Vagabond Ballroom represent it till I die

We stayed up all night with 40's in our hands
Watching Paris burn and bombs fall on Afghanistan
We saw the sun come up
For the first time in the world screaming like a newborn baby purple
Red and gold, another day will die Vagabond ballroom for life, tattooed on my chest as we watch it all go by

stayed up all night
And saw the sun come up, and saw the sun come up
And saw the sun come up, scream it from the roof
