Intro#

Yo, I am, a beginner, in the rap world, I never had girl

They I make 'em hurl, well let's see girls...

Verse1#

It's a contest, the quickest, will be the best

Even if you're a guest you can still challenge, the test

If you lose, it says who next and you might need a rest

And later you might get ready and set

Standing on the stage and you use your rage, and next you'll find a good way to know what you should say

Something great, or maybe something everybody hate, but it doesn't matter now, Cos now it's too late

You still stand there, you don't dear, to start swear, cos you fear, you don't wanna be here

It's sweat in your hair, You can't believe this is real, you can't feel, what this really is, It's complete shit

You know you must do it, you feel this is shit, you don't wanna do it, you rather taste a fist,

If you fail just try again, Yo until you don't feel pain

You better you use your brain and say I'm not insane

Chorus# X2

You can accept yourself and it helps to success If you wanna be the only b-e-est

You got your skills you got your will, let your mind not stand still keep work with it, You can...

Verse2#

It's so hard, you won't get far, no faster than a car

You got your shot, show what you got, show you're hot

You got your chance, you got your glance

You got your plans, you got your fans, Now you have to show them, what you have

Show what you can, show them that you're a man

Show them that you're a big human, show them that you scan

You know you can rap, you know you can receive slaps

But this is not crap, give em phat they'll like that Everything might seem impossible you can make it possible

It's available to not be unavailable and It's able

And keep work and be worst and it won't get worse

Even if you think it It maybe not be it

It's up to you what you want to do

Reach the top, and never give up....

Chorus# X2

Verse3#

We're finally here, You sit there, And I'm here

You can hear everything I want to swear

I started rap in my young time, I don't need a wife

To survive my shitty hard life

But I still want a girl in this stupid crazy world

I've never had a relationship so everything might turn to shit

Everything I want from girl, is not only to fuck

But she doesn't understand who I really am

Girl I would be the greatest boy you'll ever lose

You would understand it too, You know It's true

I know it's hard to know but just let it go

Don't get down get up show your town your great music...

Friendships is so hard, So would I have a relationship with a bitch who doesn't like it?

That would only be shit, Cos I hate it, But I keep singing, So you have to understand what I'm ringing and I'm singing with a clinging shitting while I'm hitting the wall with some alcohol

I'm outty sorry what? Howdy!

Chorus# X2

End#

Yo accept yourself

I'm sure it helps!
