cheer up, cherub why's your halo burning out a mutual friend it makes me scream and shout you hear the creaks above your bed you hear my girlfriend cum laude kiss her hand in front of me and take her out when i'm not around so? well?
there's no reversing the spell of if you don't who will my body is a building and i am burning down i will burn, burn, burn until i hear no sound i ask my friends for their advice they say, boy, what goes around little by little they lift the veil that you wear so well
so? well?
so win, we will
