doesn't it ever stop what do they want with all of us when will the noise end and the quiet start how many hours have i been blankly staring at these empty walls
never gonna die
never gonna grow old
i'll always be right here standing by your side catching all of your tears helping you to believe in something more days into weeks fly by memories pass me on the way like lights along wet streets that i grew up on nothing looks familiar to me anymore but i keep driving
never gonna grow old
disparate and tired let me off of this ride i'm going home as soon as i can leave
