I came to see you
But you weren't there
I waited 8 hours
But no one seemed to care

When all the world is fast asleep
A little devil in my heart creeps
He sings a song into my inner ear
He sings a revrie to chanticlear

I tried to call you
But you wouldn't answer the phone
I waited 8 hours
In my room all alone
When all the world is fast asleep
A little devil in my heart creeps
He sings a song into my inner ear
He sings a revrie to chanticlear

When every angels lost its will to fly
And every mothers lost her srength to cry
A little devil in my heart creeps
A little devil remain fast asleep
