Faire fingers drawing lines
Making simple designs up in the air
Hello, how are you - I'm five
And calling to someone pretending they're there
To someone who's never there

Hey

Why don't you pick up the telephone
I just might be somebody you ought to know

Hey

Hide and seek is a baby's game
You don't want to know my name
I'm gonna tell it to you just the same

I'm ten years old and much to bold
I get that from you that's what they say anyway
Fifteen's drawings nearer and I see clearer
My face in the mirror
Who do I look like today

Hey

I just might be somebody you ought to know

Hey

Hide and seek is a baby's game
You don't want to know my name
I'm a gonna tell it to you just the same
