Days are changing colours
The sun is throwing needles on my closed window pane
The shades of leaving summer
Are dancing on a sidewalk it's getting colder while I try
To find a way to get this right
What's in my weary head
Hey dad the day will come when we will laugh again
You're not the only one who tries to understand

And the rain falls from the autumn sky
And the last few days won't leave my mind
Oh I wish I'd never seen this face
Hey mama don't you cry again
I still do what I can and see
How the world comes down on me
With no words spoken honestly

Too much I cannot handle
But if not me who's there to help me through
Maybe it makes me stronger
If there's no one who tells me what to do
And suddenly there's nothing like it ought to be
Who belongs to me
And I hope the time will come you talk to me my friend
I'm not the only one who tries to understand

And the rain falls from the autumn sky
And the last few days won't leave my mind
Oh I wish I'd never seen this face
Hey mama don't you cry again
I still do what I can and see
How the world comes down on me
With no words spoken honestly
