"Amnesia Ceiling Pt. II"

Cherish insanity, digression grinding
The cogwheels of a cool eloquence lined with an undimensional joy

Amusing ourselves to death
Before reclaiming a lifeless life

Subscribe to whose iconisms
Rallied into a closed circuit
Of dreams turned sour and then turned on themselves

Exotic variations (of nothing)
Can't think beyond conditioning
Now stand at the end of life.
The broken promise of wasted activity

Endure this world without end in total silence
