Spiced with, the vacuity
Of inertia, unstirred
Undercurrent disorder
Perceive the same
Anxious drones carry out virus sorties
Unable to fracture displacement from our minds
Mind fuck sift repeats itself
Drawn to bleached definitions of gender, semiotics and race
A preset, unconscious
Sealed into, a vicious circle
Incapable of receding
Indentured precedence

Mistook to select, the true means of freedom
Instead breathing in deeply, from this vacuum

Brewing complacency in the delusion envelope
Retained in the bereft lobe of alienation
Harmony gouged out until depleted
Inevitable breakdown, of automated life
