Decapitated body
Of information
Reassembled wrong into a smile
I always took this
Prescribed carcinogen
And watched my aura
Fall to grey
Delusional liaisons for spring loaded images
Stalking words

Dry lunged from tranquility
Cancer clustered, going nowhere fast
Turn style
Unfree mentality am I suspect?

Life tuned to a time table
Scourge rhythm, accelerated
Discordance axis spinning
Like a roulette wheel

I'm a split personality torn
In between a flat calm null
Awestruck and spellbound
I can only watch
