Dive into the river again
Strong as the current within
You wouldn't let me drown

And I know we're going down again

I wanna taste a gun
I wanna pull you down to me
I won

You'll give back, I know that you could
If it were you I would
But you wouldn't let me drown

And I know we're going down again

I wanna taste a gun
I wanna pull you down to me
I won

And there's no time to understand
The bomb is ticking in my hand
My lungs explode beneath the waves
And there's nobody left to save

To save (overboard into nothing)
To save (overboard into nothing)
To save (overboard into nothing)
To save (overboard into nothing)

I wanna taste a gun
I wanna pull you down to me
I won in the say
I wanna taste a gun
I wanna pull you down to me
I won
I wanna pull you down to me
I won in the say
