No chance to get away

Can't you please find a way
I need you here to stay
More and more and everyday
No chance to get away
I need you here to stay
No chance to get away

I guess it's how it's got to be
The way you give... just call for me
I'll be leaving you don't wanna cause you pain
But sometimes I go insane
You say you want me to come and stay
To be so close of you everyday
I'm not quite sure of what I feel
I just don't know, is it really real
I feel time slipping through my hands
What wind blows desert sand
Here a question come from up above
I know about this thing called love
No turn around, no look away
Just listen what I've got to say
I learned my lesson a long time ago
Ah ah, I just say no

When I see that smile over your face
I can't believe it's not a trace
I'm not quite sure it's just the place
Sometimes I try to escape
Doesn't matter what I try to do
Never seems to me the way for you
Can't always make your dreams come true
Stop wasting time feeling blue
I feel time slipping through my hands
What wind blows desert sand
Here a question come from up above
I know about this thing called love
No turn around, no look away
Just listen what I've got to say
I learned my lesson a long time ago

Ah ah, I just say no
