Taking in another TV fight every night
Fight to the death with those hungry for love
And horny for blood
If doesn't matter if I change the station
It's a shame that nothing will change
When they hear me sing
No I got it.
This is what happens when they sicken you,
And sicken me
De-sensitized to beauty and death
Watch a stranger's last breath
It doesn't matter if I change my lifestyle
The only thing that we can do today
Is make 'me listen when we sing.
Now I got it.
