Next year things won't be so bad

I know you're sick of being sad

I'm skipping my own funeral

Coffins and urns and graves

It doesn't feel like anyone's safe

I'm skipping my own funeral

One less victim

Last year we tried and failed

Bad luck's a fuckin' drag

I'm skipping my own funeral

If she had talked to you

From beyond the grave like me

You'd see why my lips turn blue

On less victim

I'm skipping my own funeral
