Verse 1:

You must be looking for a ride
It's solar raining when you get outside See something sparkling oh come on You gotta at least ... turn me on
And when you reason with yourself
You got to picture someone else

Chorus:

As she danced with the mirror sway, while the records played
And the hours passed
And she gone to a matinee, no, she found a way like a ... past

Verse 2:

I'll take that cookie for my jar
Look for ... up on the bedroom floor
I'm feeling heavy with the pound
Just like a siren, don't make a sound
And when you reason with yourself
You gotta picture someone else

Chorus:

Well she dreamed of the silver screen, but she's just a scream
But it's all a bronze
You say way better you than me, but she's hard to see when the lights come on
She can dance with the shadow on, like she's all alone
as the hours pass
Should she say for a night or so, but she's gotta go like a breath of life

Verse 3:

But take it how you want it Don't let it get away from you
No matter how you got it It's never gonna stay with you And anyway you squeeze it,
You know it's gonna be the same

Don't matter how you leave it You're beaten at the game

Chorus:

Well she dreamed of the silver screen, but she's just
a scream
But it's all a bronze
You say way better you than me, but she's hard to see
when the lights come on
She can dance with the shadow on, like she's all alone
as the hours pass
Should she stay for a night or so, but she's gotta go
like a breath of life
