One moment, two more later
Tomorrow read the paper
Once here and then it's gone
Forever from this point on
But it never strikes discretely
Dark days swallow completely
Delicate? we never noticed
Far more risk far less progress
Sing a song for those we miss
It shouldn't happen, not like this
Once here and then it's gone
Forever from this point on
Wisdom I remember always,
Never forget your homies
But it never strikes discretely
Dark days swallow completely
Delicate? we never noticed
Far more risk far less progress
Sing a song for those we miss
It shouldn't happen, not like this
Nobody knows why jonny died oh, why
He could change my world with just a smile and a bike
Nobody knows why jonny died, goodbye.
