"Nobody No More"

Mind on fire with things that will never be
How I loath this world
How I hate the fact that you know me
Well I really wish I could take away that pain
Steal my name from upon your lips
Make your memories of me erase
Nobody Nobody No More
Nobody Nobody No More
Forsaken soul Born to be alone
I want no one here
When I rip the flesh off from my bones
Well I'll probably be cursed with a ghosts fate
To linger in this world
To repeat the things I tried to escape
Nobody Nobody No More
Nobody Nobody No More
And there is nothing that I want
When I look around I know my life's done
Nobody Nobody No More
Mind on fire with things that could never be
Do you loath this world?
Do you hate the fact that you Know me?
Well I really wish I could take it all away
To have never existed at all
There's no real reason why I was made
Nobody Nobody No More
Nobody Nobody No More
And there is nothing that I want
When I look around I know my life's done
Nobody Nobody No More
Nobody, no more
Nobody, no more worth living for
Nobody, no more
Nobody, no more who I adore
