English translation

An unavoidable catastrophe
A proud warrior
Tracing a ring of eternity
I travel in search of a truth called "reason" Don't cry
The other side of the brightly shining door A far-away smile
A beloved planet that's become a mother
It surely exists, a warmth I fight to protect The scattered dreams of steel Disappearing in the darkness Souls that will one day meet Without forgetting, let's live eternally Don't say Words of comfort are definitely unnecessary Nothing is born without sadness

Even a hated enemy also knows of light Call out to fate, entrusted with your mission, fight now All things in the universe
The evolution of the spiral Innumerable stories of love and light I believe that there is only one
One place I can call home
It surely exists, a warmth I fight to protect
But a door opens to a time of fatigue and sadness
It surely exists, a warmth it's okay to embrace
